ABOUT THIS WINERY

The history of Tullibardine as a location for brewing and distilling is one of the oldest in Scotland, dating back to the 15th century. In 1488, a young King James IV of Scotland stopped by, before his coronation, to purchase beer from the local brewery. This brewery was known for producing fine beer thanks to the quality of the local water source.

TASTING NOTES

This beautifully golden whisky has hints of citrusy lime on the nose and hints of vanilla and oatmeal. On the palate, there is a touch of tropical pineapple and zingy orange zest. It finishes with a creamy edge.

PRODUCT NOTES

A wonderful, rich whisky that has been matured in first-fill ex-Bourbon barrels and finished in 225 litre barriques previously used to age Sauternes.
