ABOUT THIS WINERY

Château Eugénie is the end result of a long lineage of winemakers. According to departmental records, the first traces of winegrowing dates back to 1470 when the Couture winegrowers served the Lord of Albas. It was our great-great-grand-mother, Eugénie, who offered her name to the property.

TASTING NOTES

The wine displays a deep cherry red color. The nose opens up with aromas of licorice, black fruits and violet. This dry wine offers a pleasant freshness and has soft tannins. The ample palate ends on a lingering finish.
