ABOUT THIS WINERY

Founded in 1825, Domaine Faiveley is one of Burgundy's greatest domaines. Originally the company was a classic negotiant business, but after seven generations of steadily acquiring properties the Faiveley family have established themselves as the most important vineyard owners in Burgundy, with 120 hectares of painstakingly selected small plots (typically not larger than 1 hectare in size) spread across the region.

TASTING NOTES

"Here is a Bourgogne of regional appellation with undeniable charm featuring flavours of red fruits (raspberry, wild berry, cherry...). The mouth is caressing, delicate and tender. A wine that can age three to four years in the cellar, or that can be served chilled tonight at dinner."

- Philippe Lapeyrie
