ABOUT THIS WINERY

Parés Baltà is a family owned winery in the Penedès region of Spain with traditions dating back to 1790. Today, the winery produces a wide range of high quality organic wines and cavas in biodynamic vineyards, which have received international acclaim. Always keeping quality in view, the aim is to produce some of the best and most interesting wines in the world while protecting the environment.

TASTING NOTES

Very pale yellow with green tinges. Bright and clean. The very varietal nose clearly combines the aroma of mature pear, almost caramelized, and banana with creamy notes coming from the work of the fine lees. On the palate, the wine is fresh, but surprisingly ample with a good balance and acidity. It reminds us of a pear Tarte Tatin with Crème Anglaise. Organic wine certified by Demeter.

PRODUCT NOTES

After a light skin maceration during four hours, the grapes were lightly pressed, and then fermented in stainless steel tanks during 18 days at an average temperature of 16 °C. Once the fermentation was finished, the wine was kept in contact with the fine lees for 3 months, applying daily battonage some minutes per day. The grapes come from Finca Pares Balta, located 254 meters above sea level where the soils are limestone and chalky. The vineyards are biodynamic and have Demeter certification, ...
