ABOUT THIS WINERY

The french family Montresor moved to Italy in the Veneto region near the lake of Garda, an area renowned for its morain soils: perfect for viticulture! The Montresors are part of the wine industry for more than 200 years and they would like to share this privilege with everyone in the world that will choose to drink a bottle of their wines. French blood, Italian Spirit !

PRODUCT NOTES

This wine is obtained from grapes coming of autochthone vines, such as the corvina veronese, molinara and rondinella. Historical studies refer that the dedication of this territory to the viticulture dates back to the roman age, however it was is during the middle ages that there was a strong improvement in this activity: in fact in the xiv century, 30-40% of the lands were cultivate exclusively to the growing of the grapes.
