ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Isle of Harris Distillery is known as 'The Social Distillery', an ethos which embraces the generous character of our island and the people who live here.

Although very much a working distillery, we open our doors six days a week, to connect with all those who want to learn more about our story and share our spirit.

TASTING NOTES

A well-defined juniper note with pine needles, immediately followed by the fresh citrus notes of bitter orange, lime and grapefruit. Develops a complex floral note of rose and wallflowers with crushed green herbs, coriander and gooseberry all underpinned by mixed spice. Sugar kelp adds to the complexity and richness and gives a dry maritime note.

On The Palate

Refreshing gin with good balance between the bitter juniper and pine and the sweet
