ABOUT THIS WINERY

When Laura Catena decided to create a line of wines of her very own, she made a conscious decision to pay tribute to the traditional, small, family, growers and to a group of special vineyard sites in Mendoza, Argentina. She chooses to honour the hard work and dedication of the small winegrowing families of Mendoza with her La Posta wines. One taste and you will welcome these growers into your own families, into your glass, and into your heart.

TASTING NOTES

A beautiful red and purple color with aromas of black cherries, dark fruits, dark chocolate and baker's spice. On the palate, the wine shows dense, dark berry and plum flavors along with hints of sandalwood and spice, and even a hint of violets in the finish. This is a full-bodied and well-structured wine that is incredibly full of life and born to be enjoyed with food and friends.

It goes great with many foods, especially meat and barbecue. Unique recipe ideas include: Grilled Polenta with...

PRODUCT NOTES

Raised to 3600 feet above sea level, the vines were planted in 1998. They grow on soil composed of sandy loam, sand, and silt and clay, with 20% stones covered in limestone.

Made from Malbec, 10% of the wine is aged in new French barrels for 10 months, while 30% of the wine ages in barrels of second use.
