ABOUT THIS WINERY

Newfound Wines is a manifestation of a shared passion for wine and discovery between Matt and Audra Naumann—wine industry veterans. In 2016 we founded a 40-acre ranch, vineyard, and winery in California's Sierra Foothills. We view farming as a connection not just to the land but to the universe, deeply acknowledging and respecting that nature is in control. This nature-led farming informs our winemaking process.

TASTING NOTES

Newfound Gravels Grenache does an excellent job of offering a delicious reminder of why it's worth finding those precious vineyard sites that suit the variety. It's a mouth-watering wine that's also chiselled and has great structure. There is beautiful perfume of spice and savoury herbs, some bramble and an emerging floral note. The tannin is just tactile enough to remind you the wine will do well with food as well as a bit of age, and it carries with it a long, juicy finish. It's simply...

PRODUCT NOTES

The fruit for this bottling of Grenache comes predominately from Cemetery Vineyard, with remaining amounts from Scaggs Vineyard and Yount Mill Vineyard. Foot trodden, indigenous fermentation and roughly 35 days on skins before 12 months of barrel aging.
