Jancis Robinson

“Very complete in everything, open in aromas, but still highlighting the fruit. I like the freshness it has, which gives it depth. It is a bouquet wine, with dry herbs and a lot of cedar wood, but one that does not leave any loose ends, it is complete. It has a black-fruit personality on the palate and the texture is all silky. A wine that will grow, because it is less rich in tertiary aromas than the average. A wine to invest in, without a doubt.”
