92 POINTS

“Giorgio Pelissero turned out a gorgeous set of 2017 Barbarescos. As always, the wines are bold and juicy. The 2017s are a bit less intense than normal, but still offer plenty of volume. The French oak is especially well integrated at this stage. Readers will also want to be on the lookout for the 2010 Barbaresco Riserva Vanotu, a gorgeous and elegant wine bottled to celebrate the estate’s 60th anniversary.”
