

KISTLER Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast 2016

91 POINTS

“ Medium to deep ruby-purple colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast features expressive notions of black cherries, warm red plums, cranberries and baking spices with touches of violets and tilled black soil. Medium to full-bodied, it packs in the black and red berry layers on the palate with plenty of earth and spice accents and a solid frame of grainy tannins, finishing long and lively.

About Wine Advocate

Robert Parker founded his bi-monthly newsletter, The Wine Advocate, in 1978. Since then he has come to be called "the most influential wine writer in the world today." In 2001 he launched eRobertParker.com. His team of Wine Advocates now comprehensively covers the world of fine wines in a way that no one person can any longer do. Parker continues to review the great wines of Bordeaux and Northern California and acts as a critic-at-large conducting vertical tastings and horizontal tastings of older vintages of California and elsewhere.
