

COMPAGNIA DE VINOS TELMO RODRIGUEZ Branco de Santa Cruz 2017

93 POINTS

“ The 2017 Branco de Santa Cruz was cropped from a warm and dry vintage marked by a spring that resulted in an early harvest of a shorter crop. It's a field blend of Godello, Treixadura, Doña Blanca, Palomino and other varieties from the village of Santa Cruz at 600 meters in altitude on granite soils. It fermented with indigenous yeasts and matured in oak barriques and foudres of different sizes for 10 months. Despite the difficulties of the vintage, and with the advantage of some time in bottle, the wine is showing very well. They might not like my saying so, but the wine has a somewhat Burgundian profile with the Godello character. It's a little more Mediterranean, with aromatic herbs, hay, straw and pollen, good volume and a bitter twist in the finish. ”

À propos de Wine Advocate

Robert Parker founded his bi-monthly newsletter, The Wine Advocate, in 1978. Since then he has come to be called "the most influential wine writer in the world today." In 2001 he launched eRobertParker.com. His team of Wine Advocates now comprehensively covers the world of fine wines in a way that no one person can any longer do. Parker continues to review the great wines of Bordeaux and Northern California and acts as a critic-at-large conducting vertical tastings and horizontal tastings of older vintages of California and elsewhere.
